DAVID H. ROE, JR. RECEIVES PRESTIGIOUS PRESIDENT'S AWARD

PHOENIX, AZ (October 25, 2007) – The Arizona Housing Association is pleased to announce that David H. Roe, Jr., owner of Kingman Quality Homes LLC and Northwest Chapter Past President, is the recipient of this year's President's Award for Outstanding Commitment and Dedicated Service to the Manufactured Housing Industry. Sam Baird, Association President, presented this prestigious award during the Arizona Housing Association's Annual Convention, which was held October 15 & 16 in Sedona, AZ.

"I am truly honored by this award," says Roe, continuing, "It makes me proud to be considered such an integral part of this industry."

"David has always supported the ideals and image of our industry through our Annual Home Shows and his business, and he is well deserving of this honor," says Baird.

The Arizona Housing Association is dedicated to increasing home ownership opportunities in Arizona by focusing on customer satisfaction and zoning issues. Its membership includes Manufacturers, Retailers, Developers, Lenders, Contractors/Installers, Suppliers, and Brokers of Pre-Owned Homes. AZHA has a legislative and regulatory program designed to protect and promote the interests of the industry and our customers. It also conducts educational programs designed to address members' needs and industry issues.
